□“My Eyes Have Seen The Glory”□□□□1st-My eyes shall see the glory of the firing□ of the fools;□They are tramping on our county, they are□ breaking all the rules.□We will march into their office and remove□ the Sheriff's men;□then truth shall go marching once again.□□-Glory, Glory, alleluia, the law□ should have all new rules.□□We will draw them up short a nd haul□ them in to court,□and they won't tramp on our cou nty anymore!□□2nd-We have seen their flashlights a' circling□ in the parks;□are they looking for a clue , are they looking□ for their marks?□Well, they couldn't find a clue if it bit□ them on the leg,□and the truth just leaves them in the dark.□□-Glory, Glory, alleluia, they are out□ to stick it to you.□We will grab them by t he pants and fill□ them full of ants,□and they won't go out patrolling anymore!□□3rd-Maybe they think they come from Russia□ far away across the sea,□they want to take our freedoms away from □ you and me.□If they think that they can do that, then they□ ar e way out of their tree;□because we will go marching 'till we're free.□□-Glory, Glory, alleluia, we are 'o so□ tired of you.□We have become enraged with t he way you□ rant and rave,□and we just won't take it any more!□□ □ □-----□eyes have see
